

1. Color the Dragon head and tail (color both sides)

(reds and golds are traditional)

2. Cut out along the DARK outer line

3. FOLD – DON'T CUT

along dotted line

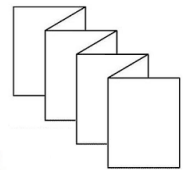

To make the Dragon Body.

Cut strips of construction paper to approximately 5 centimeters (2 inches) wide.

Glue several strips end to end to make a longer strip. Fold the long strip in an 'accordion fold'

The simple 'accordion fold'

If you want to get fancy with the body you can do the 'slinky fold' one good source to learn this fold is www.pinkstripeysocks.com (search - slinky fold) or watch the video link on this site
